We realise that the degree to which someone is really known within their church varies, so please answer these questions as you are able. Thank you.

How long have you known the applicant?

In what capacity?

Do you know of the ministry of Journey UK?

Are you aware of why the person is applying for this course?

What do you see as their key issues?

Are they able to receive from God?

How will they function in a small group setting?

How well are they integrated into the ongoing life of the church?

The course runs weekly. How will your church be able to support them?

- Pastorally?
- Intercession?
- Accountability?
- Financially (to support with the cost of their course fees if needed)?

From what you know, do you recommend them for this course?
